

Principal sponsor of the conference:

Department for Energy and Mining

MISSION

The Department for Energy and Mining exist to deliver affordable, reliable and secure energy supplies in a transitioning national energy market, and to responsibly unlock the value and opportunities offered by South Australia's mineral and energy resources.

Government of South Australia

Department for Energy and Mining